Writing to me, is simply thinking through my fingers, said Isaac Asimov. So let your “thinking fingers” do the talking.

The school’s online magazine- Abhivyakti is now in its full swing. True to its name, the magazine serves as a platform for you to express yourself and power your opinions. You can write articles, stories, slogans, poems, diary entries, essays and letters on the following topics:

- My Teacher My Hero
- A Teacher I Will Never Forget
- A teacher but not a Teacher (somebody who taught you something valuable but who is not a teacher by profession)
- 10 Reasons to be a Teacher
- 10 Things one should never tell a Teacher
- 10 Ways to become a Teacher’s Favourite
- Winning a Teacher’s Heart

Following are few opening lines you can use:

- That day I was late. I walked into the class...
- .... This was a completely different aspect of a teacher I had so dreaded all these days. I was pleasantly surprised!
- I have learned from my Teacher that...

✓ Your writings can be humorous and witty but not derogatory.
✓ Mail your entries (with or without illustrations) by 04 September 2017 on the mail address mentioned below:
  bhoomika.dabas@gmail.com

Note- All work should be original.

Regards