

All Delhi Open Skating Championship

An All Delhi Open Skating Championship was held in RK Puram, New Delhi on 30 Aug 15 in which hundreds of children from different schools participated. Utsav Alexander of class X-C also participated in the day long championship. Boys and girls of different age groups were bunched into different age brackets for different events. Although Utsav Alexander was bunched along with senior age group participants, he with his keen dedication and intense involvement in the sport was able to outshine all by coming first and achieving Gold Medal in the championship. He was able to perform as a result of his arduous practice in the sport, which lead to his achievement and also because of the able guidance of his teachers.
